Healing: A Theme for Lent

During Lent, we will continue our prayer book worship with a little extra something - a time for reflection and healing. Healing in body, mind and spirit is a powerful way to view the Lenten experience. Our life as human beings is a continual journey from brokenness and holeyness (being full of holes), to wholeness and holiness. Only through our faith can we find the healing and wellness that helps us move from being broken, fractured, and incomplete people to the wholeness and wholesomeness that God desires for us. And only through nurturing our faith and deepening our relationship with God can we hope to attain the holiness that God intends for all of us.

Healing takes many forms. There are the parables of healing in the Gospels that tell of miraculous cures of the blind seeing, the crippled rising, the mentally ill or demon-possessed being freed. There are stories of people's lives being made whole so that they may be restored to the community and the community of faith. Each of us carries within us a host of pains and hurts that inhibit us from being truly free and truly fearless and truly loving. During Lent, within our Sunday services, we will offer a time for healing prayers for those who wish to be set free and made whole from whatever burdens hobble them. You may request prayers for a family member or friend or for yourself as you prefer, and as your comfort level permits.

I hope that this focus during Lent will help you come to Easter with a new sense of joy, a deeper awareness of the innumerable blessings that God bestows on us daily, and the desire to embrace them always in your life.

BREAKING NEWS!!!

Save Sunday, February 15th on your calendar and make a special effort to be at church instead of all those other places that might distract you (like the golf course). Our bishop, the Rt. Rev. James R. Mathes will be our special guest preacher and celebrant! Our bishop is a truly thoughtful, inspirational, and effective leader. I had the pleasure of serving with him on the Diocesan Council during the first three years of his tenure and I am so impressed by his attentive concern for the direction of our diocese and the needs of our people and communities. This is a last minute gift to us, the people of St. Barnabas. He was not scheduled to visit us this year but a change in his schedule makes it possible for him to be with us. Come and see and hear Bishop Mathes on Sunday, February 15th. He is a joy and his presence among us will be a joy we can share together!

Annual Meeting

The Annual Meeting was held on Sunday, January 18th, at an 8:30 service. Confusing, of course. A few arrived at 7:30 and a few more at 9:30. When settled, +-50 attended. Cathy Gay Oswald thanked us for supporting her in her rapidly expanding job as senior warden since Alex Nagy so abruptly departed, leaving her to hold the bag, so to speak. A quorum was established, info packets with written reports and ballots were distributed.

David Leibert gave a financial report (not bad, considering!) and Bill Walker reported 100% + in meeting 2008 pledges. Good for us!

L.Louise Jee reclaimed her rightful position at the vestry meeting table for three years. Some subtle spousal switches have Victor Levine replacing Mary Levine and Bonnie Walker replacing Bill. During announcements Victor noted that many people had not bothered to even pick up their issue of the January Carillon. We put a lot of time, thought and hard work into every issue of this newsletter. It is for you. If you don't want it we certainly know how to stop it. Kendall's served a lovely breakfast. Weather co-operated.

THE CALLING COMMITTEE OF ST. BARNABAS

Canon Jenny Vervynk spent the morning of Sunday January 4th with us to help all of us focus on who we are as a parish and what we need to do to improve our lot. She questioned the rewards of participating in church life, the challenges, the opportunities, our mission. She will return on February 10th for more work with the committee. Addis Ward, co-chair, asks that we submit—each of us—a list of personal desires for traits in a new rector.

PLEASE CALL the members of the Committee, or otherwise get in touch with them with your questions, concerns, or ideas.

The nine members of the Calling Committee are:

Dinner and Conversation In the Parish Room

For most of February and all of the Lenten season, we will gather in the Parish Hall for supper and conversation. For the three Sundays prior to Ash Wednesday, i.e. 2/8; 2/15; and 2/22, we will gather at 6 pm. Around the table, sharing food, our focus of discussion will be the best selling book, The Shack, by William P. Young. A parable about God, this book is a powerful discussion about evil, anger, healing, forgiveness, redemption, love, joy and celebration that invites thoughtful reflection. Order online at Amazon.com or pick it up at Costco or your favorite bookseller, begin reading and sign up to join us for 3 lively evenings in February.

On the Sundays, in March, we will shift focus and time to watch and discuss movies. Using Hollywood releases, we will look for themes of evil, healing, redemption and love found in seemingly secular movies. To allow time to view the movies, we will begin these evenings at 5 pm, then share supper and conversation. Please sign up for all these evenings so we can be sure to provide food for all.

COPIES OF "THE SHACK"
WILL BE AVAILABLE
IN THE PARISH ROOM—
SELLING FOR $10 EACH.

Vestry Retreat Report

On January 26th, at The Palms at Indian Head, we had our first Vestry meeting of the year. This was considered a Vestry Retreat which started at 8 AM and ended about 3 PM and was led by Julia+. We enjoyed devotions in the morning, at lunch and at the closing of the meeting. The Vestry had many energizing discussions, covering many topics, a short Bible study from 1 Corinthians 12:12-27, selected our new Junior Warden, Haddon Salt, selected new committee chairs and finally set some goals for the coming year. Many thanks to David Leibert for his hospitality at The Palms.

~ Peace, Cathy Gay Oswald, Senior Warden

Subject: Added announcements

The furnace (apparently) thawed itself out and is now working, Praise Be To God!
in the event this happens again, here are some tips:

1. Rush to the front of the sanctuary. That will warm you up, and you'll avoid the draft in the back of the church.
2. Invite your neighbors and friends, and sit 12 people to a pew.
3. Seat yourself near the pulpit. Much hot air can be emitted from that area.
4. Wear thermal underwear (in the appropriate liturgical colors, of course).
5. Wait for an unfamiliar hymn --- and then watch the sparks fly!

Of Greek Fire

Did you know when
You came out of a desert
Of homespun
Locusts and wild honey

That you'd become
The baptizer of one
Who would transcend you?
Or did the logos

Sear you
With the burning fever
Of Greek fire
That would not submit

To common reason?
Was there a day
When you knew
You had been chosen

Gateway to the ages
And would hear
The divine warrant spoken
In a voice

Of quiet passion
That you would become conduit
John: herald & witness
To prime invention?

COMMUNITY SERVICE OPPORTUNITY

---

I asked if I could have this space to remind people of the wonderful opportunities for outreach at the Frugal Coyote Thrift Shoppe. Over the past few weeks of our communal lives together we have discussed in various settings and events what it means to be St. Barnabas. So, who are we? Some of the common themes I have noticed are our desire to do more outreach, our abundant love and support for each other, and our need to grow our congregation.

At the Frugal Coyote volunteering allows for building relationships with people you might not otherwise have the opportunity to become acquainted with. What better way to build our congregation? As a volunteer I am frequently amazed at the opportunity for helping others and building friendships. I see on a daily basis the need in the local community for the items that are donated by others.

The Frugal Coyote Thrift Shoppe partially funds The Borrego Springs Children's Center. The Center is a private, non-profit school. It provides preschool, full day and half day care for children in our local community. They also provide after school care for Head Start and Kindergarten.

We can do a great deal of community outreach by donating our treasures and our time at the Frugal Coyote. And who knows, they just might have something we are looking for.

The Frugal Coyote is located at 580 Circle J Drive. Store hours are Monday thru Saturday from 8am to 1pm. Donations are accepted from 8am to 12pm. To volunteer your time contact the store at 760-767-4608.
